

Short-Term Stays

Atria SENIOR LIVING

The right answer for right now

Whether Mom wants to test the waters of senior living, Dad needs a place to recover after a hospital stay, or you're simply unable to do the caregiving for a while, our door is always open.

Short-term guests benefit from a vibrant social environment that promotes well-being, and enjoy all the same services, amenities and discreet care as our residents. And settling in is as easy as unpacking a bag – we'll take care of the rest.

Care with all the creature comforts

Guests enjoy a private, fully furnished apartment along with chef-prepared meals, transportation to and from errands and appointments – plus endless opportunities for exercise, fun and social connection, right outside their door.

A short-term stay at Atria also includes:

- › Housekeeping service
 - › Discreet assistance with activities of daily living
 - › A licensed nurse on-site
 - › Appointment reminders
 - › Medication reminders
 - › Accommodations for special dietary requirements
 - › An emergency alert system
 - › A pet-friendly environment
-

Cost and minimum stay requirements vary by community. Visit AtriaSeniorLiving.com to inquire about an Atria community near you or to arrange a short-term stay.

Atria SENIOR LIVING