

CRESTAVILLA NAMED TO MODERN LUXURY ORANGE COUNTY'S 2019 LUXE LIST
Times OC Readers Also Vote Atria "Best Assisted Living"

February 14, 2019 (Laguna Niguel, CA) – Modern Luxury Orange County recently named Crestavilla – an Atria Signature Residence – to its 2019 Luxe List as "Best Home Away from Home." Crestavilla joins other best-in-class winners including The Ritz-Carlton, NetJets and Balboa Bay Club on the magazine's Luxe List.

Crestavilla represents the future of modern senior living. Its 15,000-square-foot rooftop retreat features a practice green, raised-bed gardens, open-air art studio and Top of the World lounge and patio. Additional amenities include two full-service restaurants, a bistro with wood-fired pizza oven, year-round heated pool, dog park and children's play area.

The community was thoughtfully designed using eco-friendly construction and green practices, including drought-tolerant landscaping and energy efficient appliances.

Thoughtful design was also included in Crestavilla's memory care neighborhood, where residents benefit from Atria's forward-thinking approach to care, with specially trained staff and daily opportunities for engagement. In addition to memory care, Crestavilla offers independent living and assisted living.

On the heels of the Luxe List distinction comes another recognition for all six of Atria's Orange County communities. Readers of the Times OC voted Atria Senior Living "Best Assisted Living."

"It's an honor to be recognized by the people of Orange County," said Mike Mejia, Senior Vice President of West Operations for Atria. "We understand our residents have high expectations, and we are proud to offer the programs, amenities and culinary experiences that contribute to their well-being."

Atria operates 45 communities in California. Crestavilla offers studio, one- and two-bedroom apartments and is located just minutes from the ocean and Interstate 5.
