

ATRIA SENIOR LIVING AND HOLIDAY RETIREMENT RANK #1 AND #2 FOR CARING STAR AWARD WINNERS

2022 Award Determined by Top Reviews from Residents and Families on Caring.com

LOUISVILLE, KY (November 16, 2021) – Atria Senior Living and Holiday Retirement is proud to announce 75 communities have been honored with the 2022 Caring Star award – more than any other senior living provider nationwide. The award is determined solely by reviews from seniors and their families on Caring.com, a leading senior living referral service and the nation’s top site for senior care reviews.

“It’s an honor to receive these awards, especially because they are directly based on the words and experiences of our residents and their families. We are proud that this year is the largest number of Atria communities Caring.com has ever recognized with this distinction,” said Sanela Graziose, Executive Vice President of Sales, Marketing and Communications at Atria Senior Living. “Our communities are home and so much more for our residents. It’s where they enjoy chef-prepared meals together with neighbors, attend events and programs curated to their interests and receive support from professional care staff.”

Senior Living Industry Enters 2020s Seniors Decade

By 2040, one in five Americans will be over age 65. Americans are also living longer and are more active than before in their senior years. With the number of seniors increasing, a growing number of older adults and their families are searching for senior living.

“Adult children want to help their parent picture themselves living in a senior living community, and online reviews are a smart resource for them to have at their fingertips as they begin having conversations with their parents about senior living,” Graziose said. “Seniors and their adult children want to imagine this decision as one where they enjoy staying connected to each other, their neighbors and the larger community.”
